WHY POTASSIUM ICE MELTERS ARE SAFER FOR PETS?

Potassium-based ice melters, like XYNYTH Manufacturing Corp’s Groundwork Natural Icemelter, are generally better for pets than traditional rock salt (sodium chloride) because they are less irritating, less toxic, and gentler on paws—though they still need to be used properly. Protecting our pets in the winter months is a concern of many pet owners that live in cold climates. XYNYTH has recently uploaded an article to our website resource center (Icemelter & Pets) and we would encourage you to check it out. (click here)

2026-2027 REP KITS ADDRESS UPDATES REQUIRED

We’ll start preparing your rep kits, which will include your territory price list, product sell sheets, product samples, and sample packaging bags, along with our new digital catalogue access. If you can confirm your mailing address + contact details, that would be great. Otherwise, we will not ship you a rep kit for next season. Additionally, if you’re taking any time off during Spring break, do inform us – sales@xynyth.com so we can inform any potential leads in your territory.

FARMER’S ALMANAC UPDATE

- Snowfall Canada: Above-normal snow is forecast from Atlantic Canada through northern Quebec and Nunavut, western Ontario, and the northwestern Prairies into southern Yukon.
- Snowfall USA: Near or below normal for most areas. However, greater amounts of snow are expected in much of the Carolinas, southern Appalachians, eastern Ohio Valley, southern Rockies, and eastern Desert Southwest
